

AL OMAR HAJJ AND UMRAH SERVICE

Jeddah Ziyarah

This document serves as a concise guide to performing Ziyarah in Jeddah, focusing on historically and religiously significant sites. It provides a brief overview of each location, its importance, and practical information for visitors. This guide aims to enhance the spiritual experience of pilgrims and visitors by providing context and understanding of these important landmarks.

Introduction to Ziyarah in Jeddah

Jeddah, a vibrant port city on the Red Sea, holds a unique position in Islamic history. For centuries, it has served as the gateway to Mecca and Medina, welcoming pilgrims from across the globe. Beyond its modern infrastructure and bustling commerce, Jeddah boasts a rich heritage, with numerous sites that hold religious and historical significance.

Key Ziyarah Sites in Jeddah

Here's a guide to some of the most notable sites for Ziyarah in Jeddah:

1. Masjid Al-Rahma (The Floating Mosque)

This iconic mosque, also known as the Fatima Al-Zahra Mosque, is a stunning architectural marvel built on the Red Sea's shore. Its unique design gives the illusion of floating on water, especially during high tide.

- Significance: While not directly linked to a specific historical event, Masjid Al-Rahma represents modern Islamic architecture and serves as a beautiful place for prayer and reflection. Its serene atmosphere and picturesque location make it a popular destination for visitors.
- Practical Information: Open to the public for prayers. Modest dress is required. Photography is permitted.

2. Grave of Eve (Hawaa's Tomb)

Located in the old city of Jeddah, this site is traditionally believed to be the burial place of Eve (Hawaa), the mother of humanity.

- Significance: While the authenticity of the tomb is debated among scholars, it holds symbolic importance for many Muslims. It represents the origin of humankind and serves as a reminder of our shared ancestry.
- Practical Information: The original tomb structure was demolished in 1975 due to concerns about potential veneration. The area is now a public space. Visitors can reflect on the significance of the site.

3. Boating in Jeddah

Jeddah, a major port city on Saudi Arabia's Red Sea coast, offers a variety of boating experiences for both leisure and recreation. Here's a quick look:

Location : Pearl Marina is a departure point for boat trips to explore the Red Sea and coastline.
Important : The Boating cost AED 100 Dhirams will be charged per person and paid can be done before Jeddah Ziyarah Starts

4. Makkah Gate (Bab Makkah)

One of the historical gates of Jeddah, Bab Makkah served as the main entrance for pilgrims traveling to Mecca.

5. Other Historical Mosques

Jeddah is home to several historical mosques, including Masjid Al-Shafi'i and Masjid Uthman bin Affan.

Etiquette of Ziyarah

When performing Ziyarah, it is essential to observe proper Islamic etiquette to show respect for the sacred sites and enhance the spiritual experience. Here are some guidelines:

- Maintain Cleanliness: Ensure personal hygiene and avoid littering. Keep the sacred sites clean and pristine.
- Lower Your Voice: Speak softly and avoid loud conversations or arguments. Maintain a respectful and reverent atmosphere.
- Dress Modestly: Wear modest clothing that covers the body appropriately. Avoid revealing or tight-fitting garments.
- Avoid Photography and Videography: In some areas, photography and videography may be restricted or discouraged. Respect these guidelines and avoid taking pictures that may disturb others.
- Be Mindful of Others: Be considerate of other pilgrims and avoid pushing or shoving. Offer assistance to those in need
- Refrain from Worldly Discussions: Focus on remembrance of Allah (SWT) and reflection on the significance of the sites. Avoid engaging in idle gossip or worldly discussions.
- Make Dua (Supplication): Take advantage of the opportunity to make sincere supplications to Allah (SWT) at these blessed locations.
- Avoid Innovations (Bid'ah): Stick to the practices that are authentically prescribed in the Quran and Sunnah. Avoid engaging in rituals or practices that have no basis in Islamic teachings.

Practical Advice for Ziyarah

- Plan Your Itinerary: Research the sites you wish to visit and plan your itinerary accordingly. Consider the time required to travel between sites and the physical demands of climbing mountains.
- Best Guide: We provide knowledgeable guide who can provide historical and religious context for the sites you visit.
- Stay Hydrated: Drink plenty of water, especially when visiting outdoor sites during hot weather.
- Wear Comfortable Shoes: Wear comfortable shoes suitable for walking and climbing.
- Carry Essentials: Carry essential items such as water, sunscreen, a hat, and a prayer mat.
- Be Aware of Crowds: Be prepared for large crowds, especially during peak seasons.
- Respect Local Customs: Be respectful of local customs and traditions.
- Learn Basic Arabic Phrases: Learning a few basic Arabic phrases can be helpful for communication.
- Check for Restrictions: Be aware of any restrictions or guidelines imposed by the authorities regarding access to certain sites.

Conclusion

Performing Ziyarah in Jeddah offers a unique opportunity to connect with Islamic history and deepen one's faith. By visiting these historically and religiously significant sites, pilgrims and visitors can gain a greater appreciation for Jeddah's rich heritage and its role as the gateway to the holy cities of Mecca and Medina. This guide provides a starting point for exploring these important landmarks and enhancing the spiritual experience of Ziyarah in Jeddah.